DOVER HIGH SCHOOL
DOVER, PENNSYLVANIA
VOLUME XXXV

WHERE ARE WE GOING?

HERE IS WHERE WE ARE GOING.

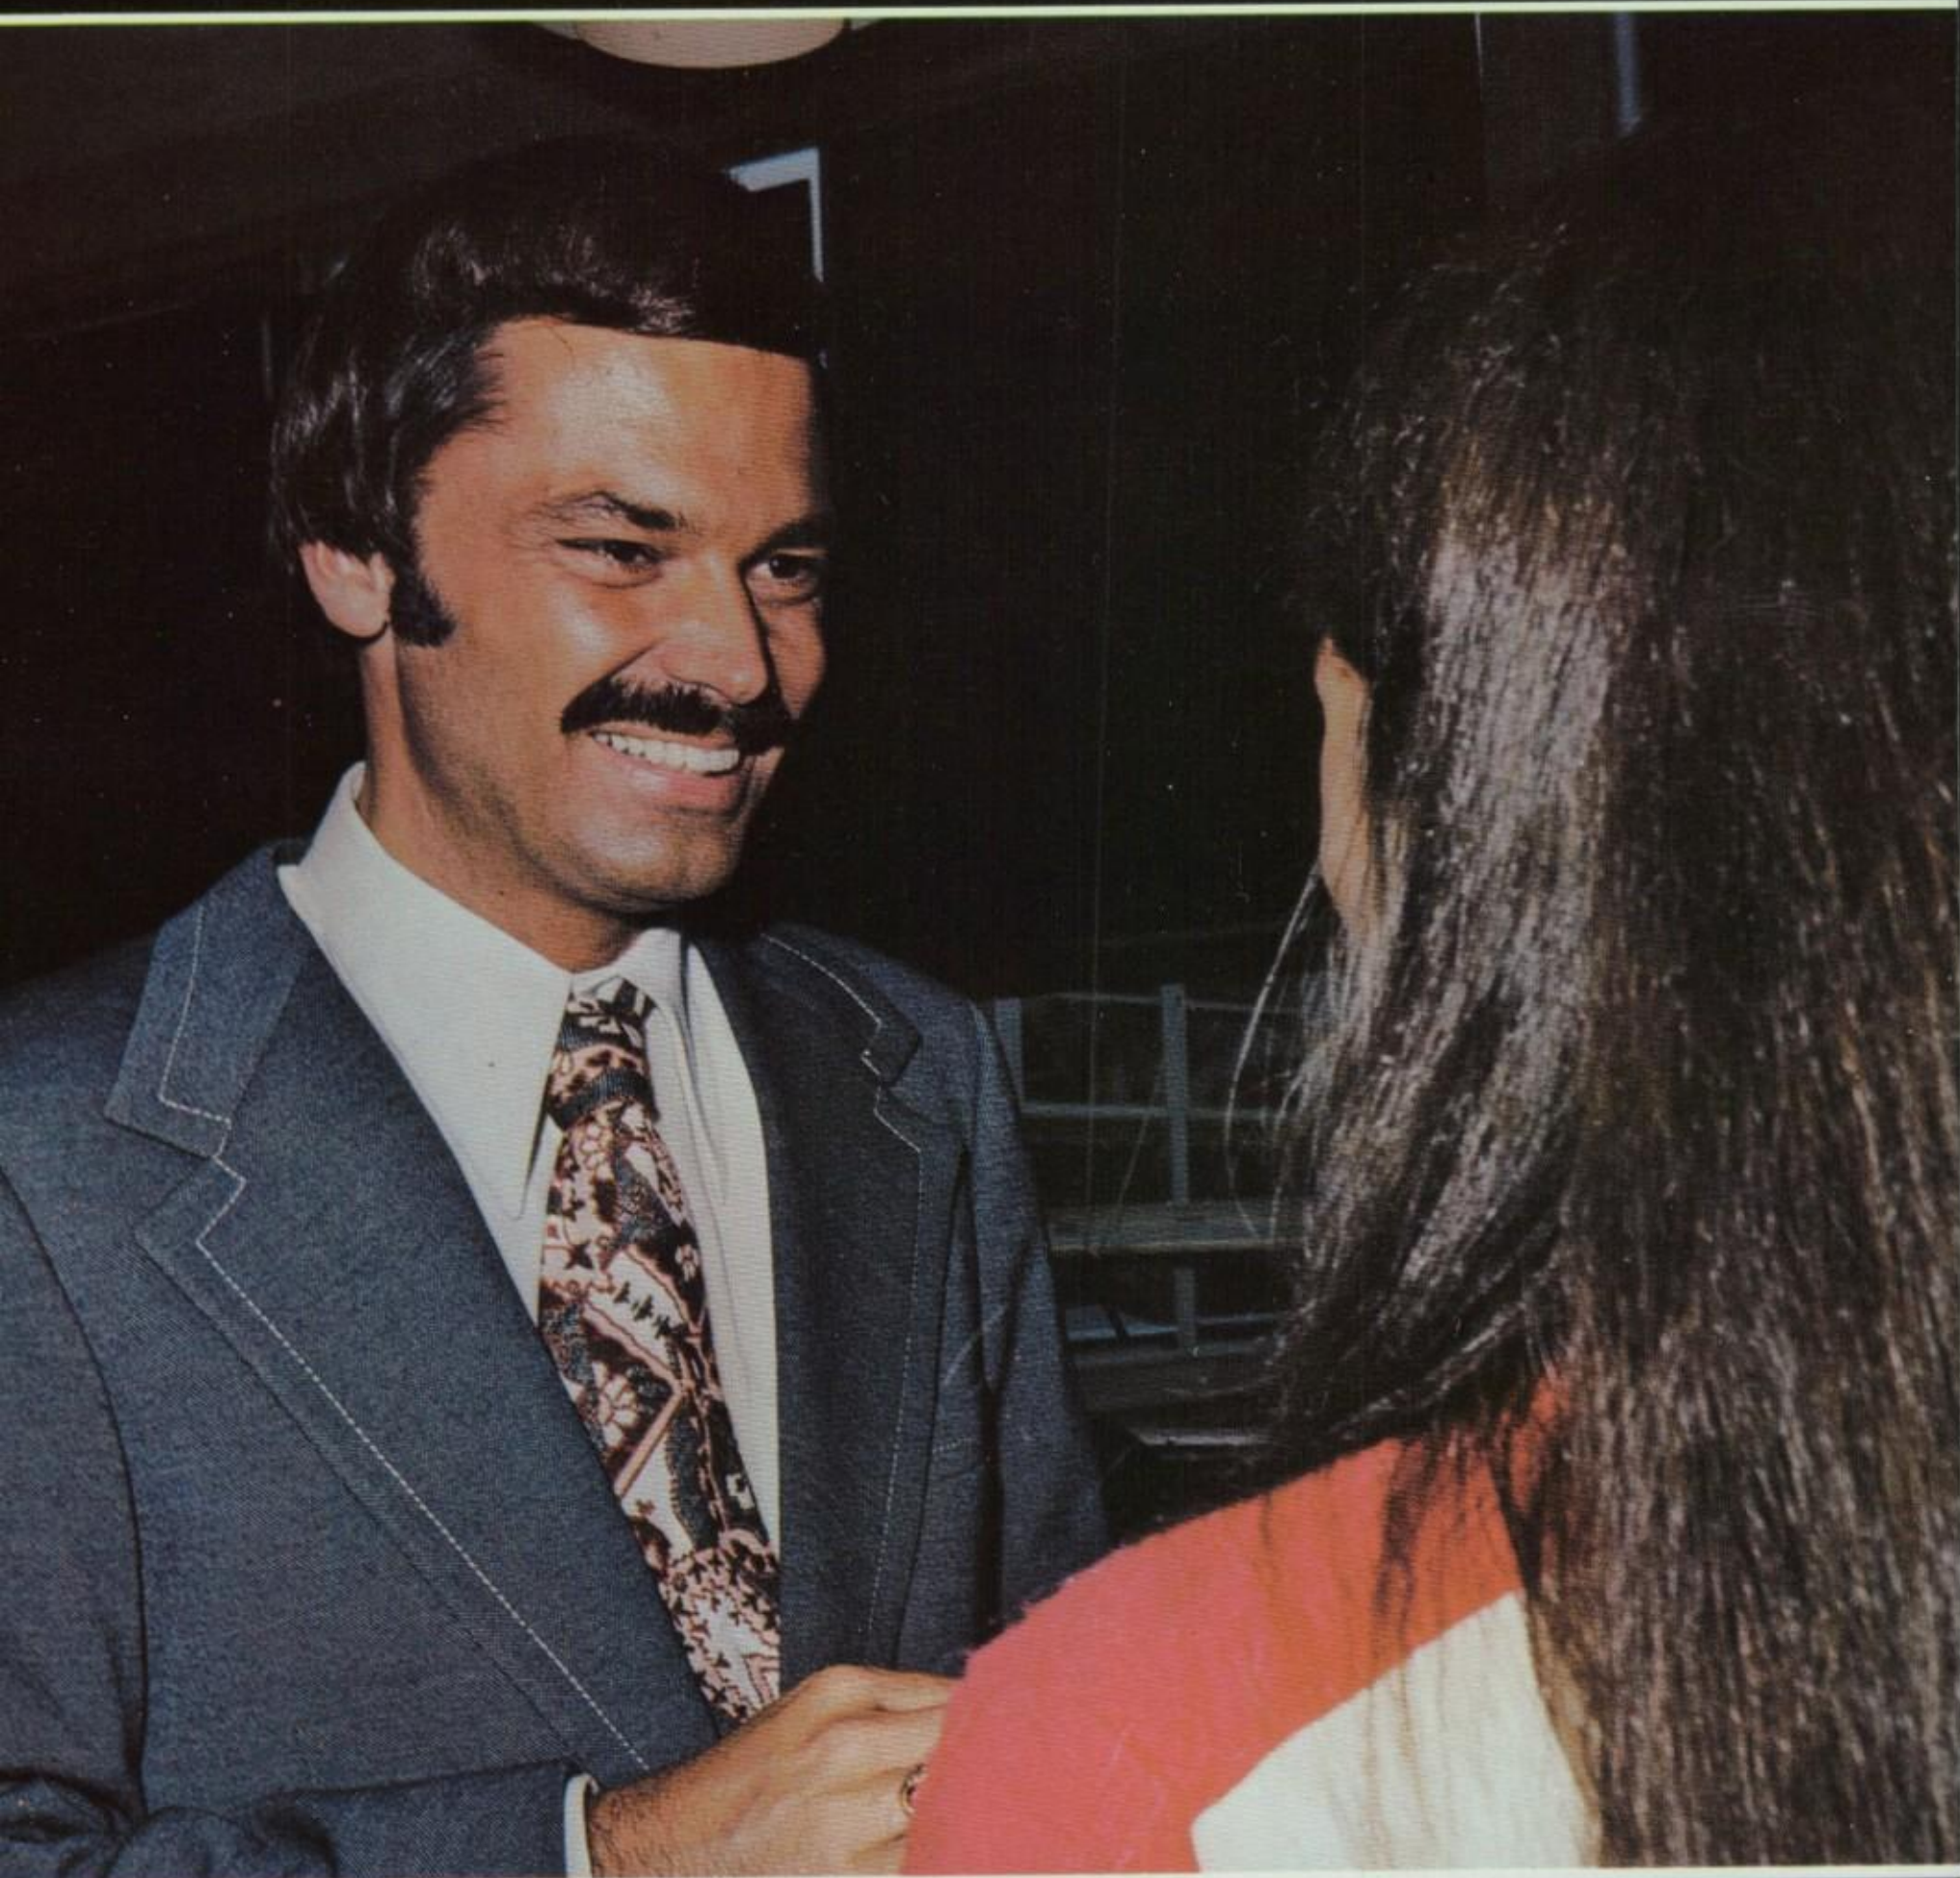

We walk through the same doors every day . . .
 Sit in the same chairs . . .
 Lean against the same lockers . . .
 Our path never changes —
 only the direction and destination.

TO SIR WITH LOVE . . .

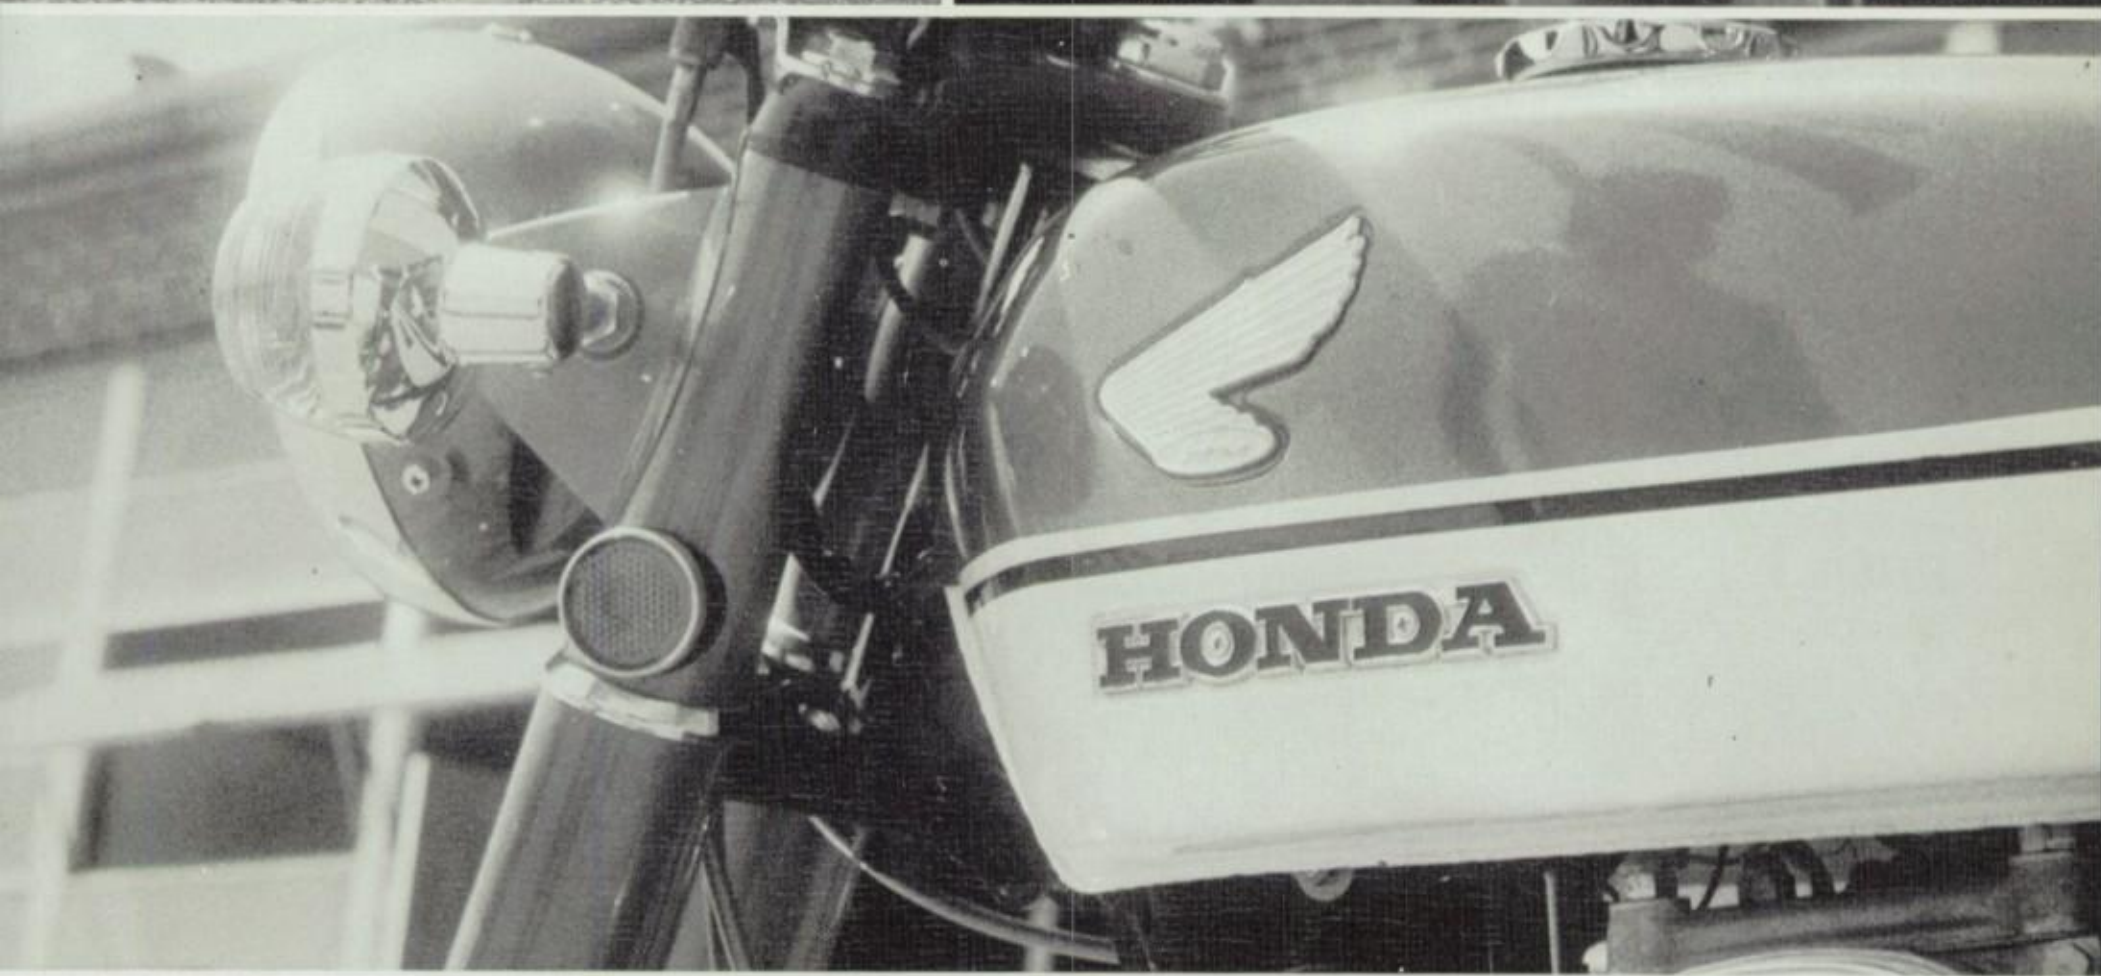

The time has come for closing books
and long last looks must end.
And as we leave it we know we are leaving our best friend.
A friend who taught us right from wrong
and weak from strong, that's a lot to learn.
Why is it, Sir, children grow up to be people one day?
What! What can we give you in return,
Mr. Miller?

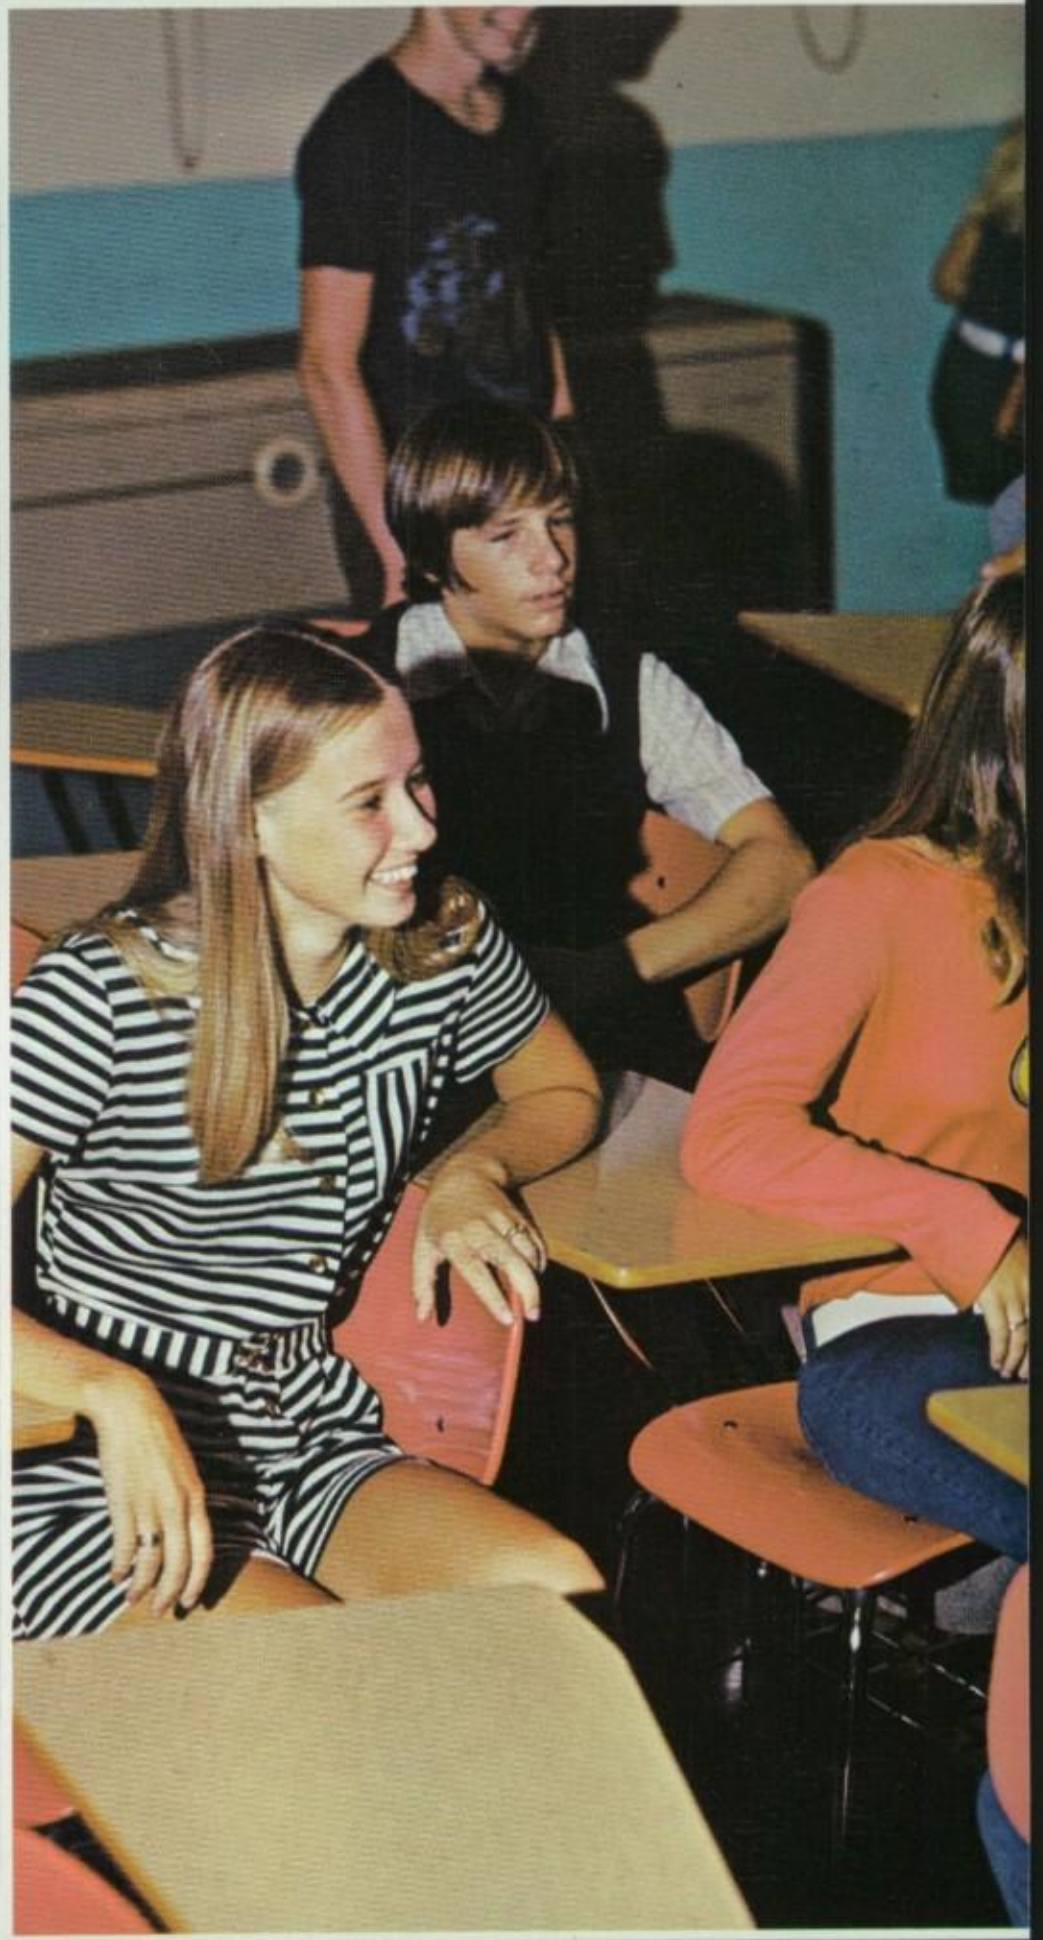

WHERE ARE WE GOING?

We all get there sooner or later . . .
often on the dead run . . .
sometimes by bike . . .
other times by bus. Get where?
To the end, of course, where satisfaction is the desired result.

CLASS BREAKS INTERRUPT 'SOUNDS OF SILENCE'

And the day falls into routine
The opening of doors . . .
The slamming of lockers . . .
The meeting of friends in 107 . . .
The shuffling of feet . . .
The ringing of bells . . .
The closing of doors . . .
Silence.

AND IN THE CLASSROOM . . .

Some sought advancement . . .
Some worked towards a goal . . .
Others were satisfied with "Just good enough"
And still others were Frowning with confusion . . .
Smiling with understanding.

WHAT ARE EXPRESSIONS?

Expressions are fleeting moments in the expanse of school experience . . . to be enjoyed only by those fortunate enough to have the eye of the candid camera as it exposes feelings of surprise . . .
friendship . . . concern . . . disgust . . .
hope . . . involvement.

SPRINTING THE 100 YARD DASH . . .

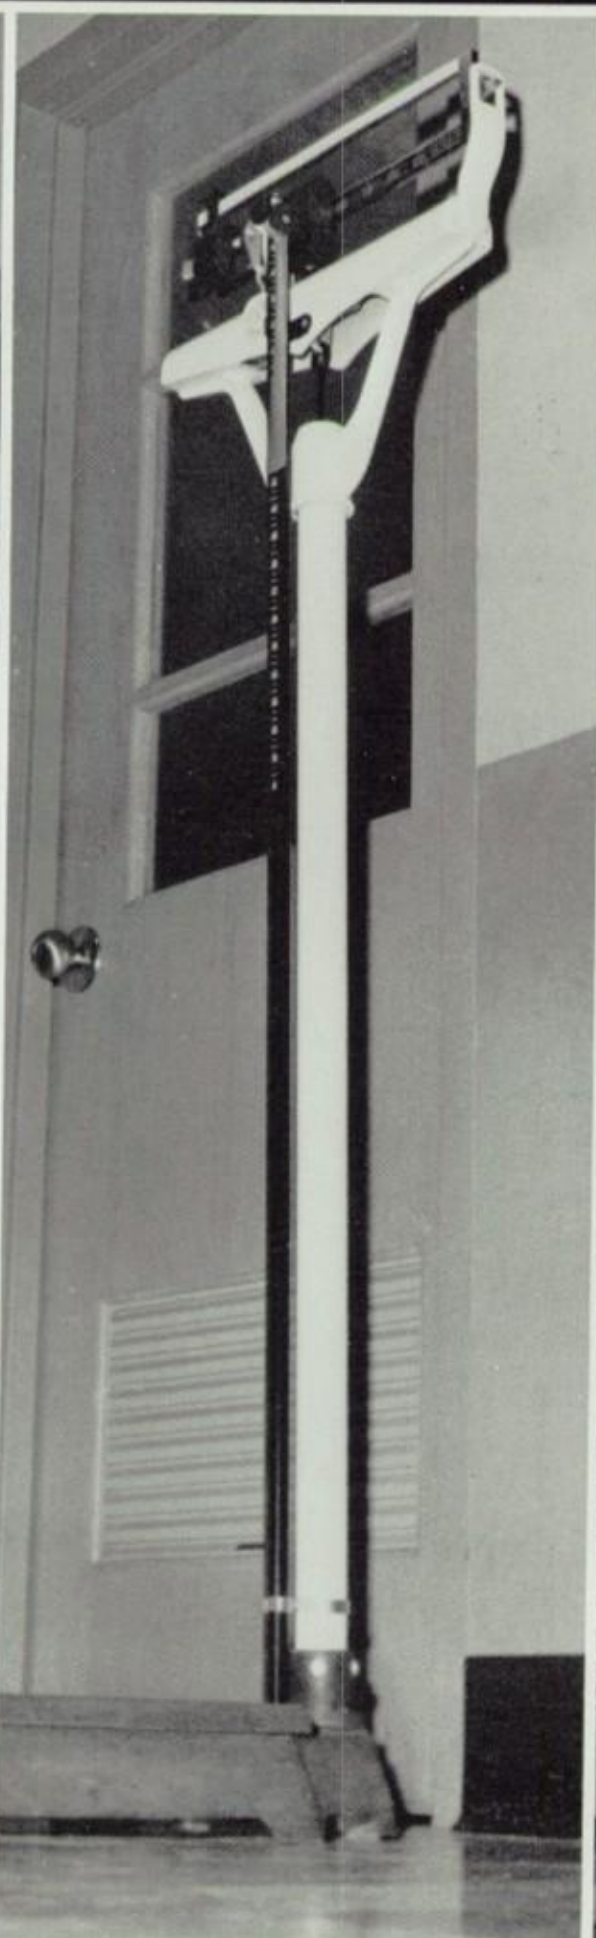

To lunch! To lunch!
The line forms . . . the crowds swell . . .
The seniors butt in line . . .
The meal is eaten . . . the tables are cleared.
Next stop . . . the lounge.

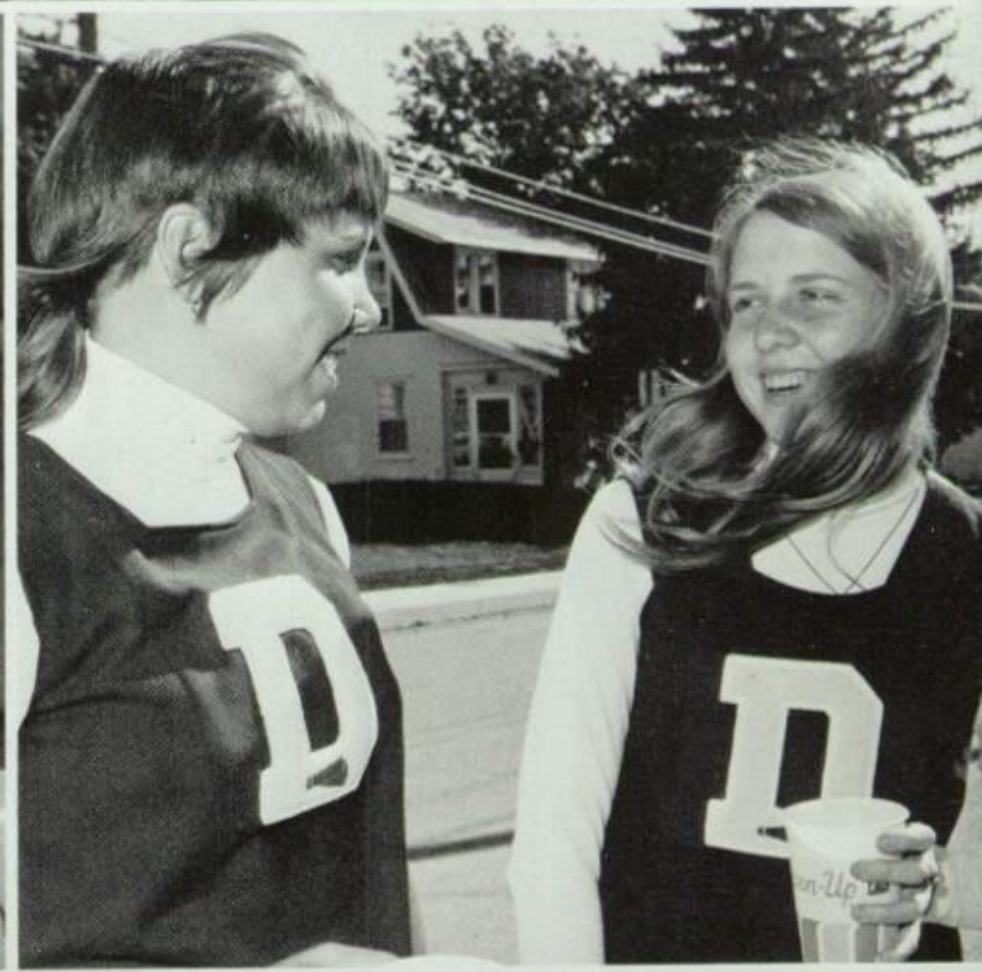

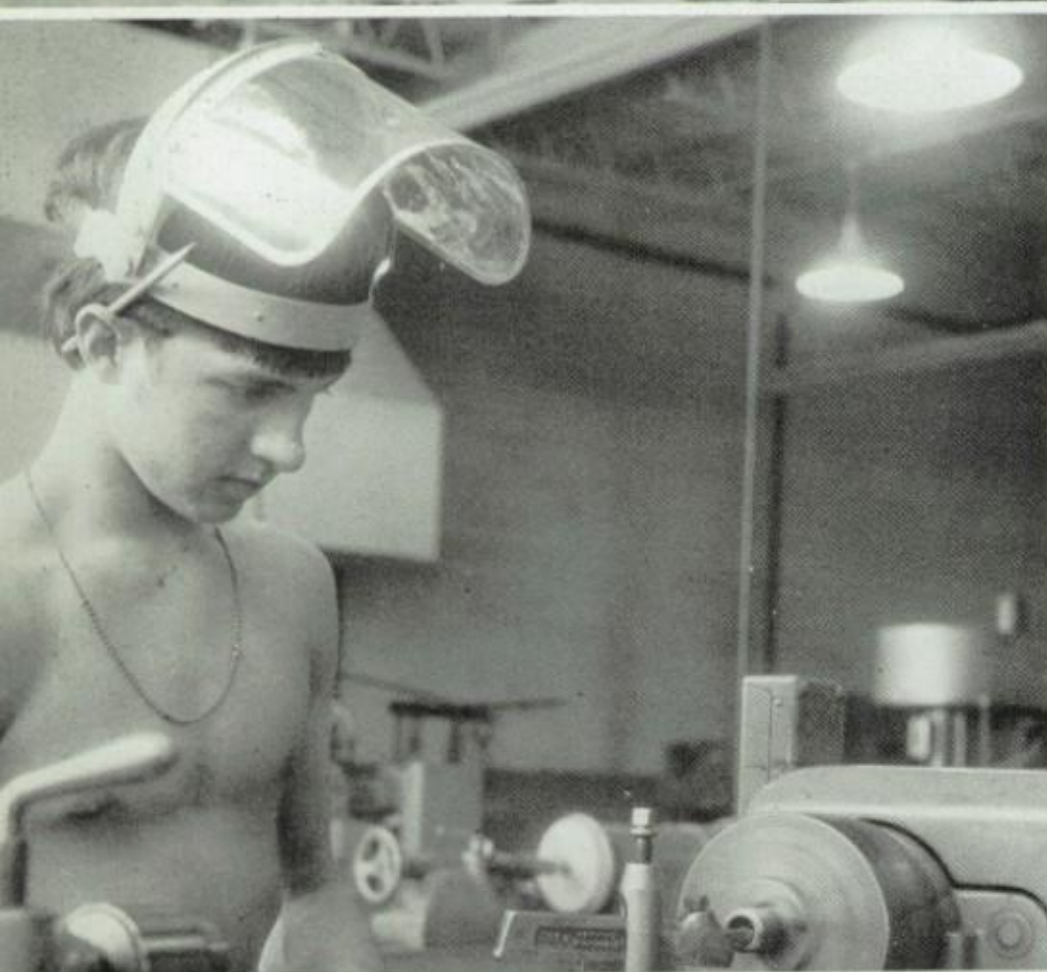

NURSE — HOW CAN YOU FORGET . . .

The little room down the hall,
the door always slightly ajar . . .
Inside, a kind and understanding woman to go to when you are troubled, to get screened, or just to lie down.

HOLD FAST THE TIME

The whirling motors and metal in the shop . . .
a good ice cold Coke . . .
putting up a bulletin board . . .
finding relaxation by reading the paper or by sailing a boat . . .
the coach's shower after a season of victories . . .
all are memories to be treasured and forgotten.

YOUTH AT FACE VALUE

The faces of youth and those who work with youth, reflect the hope, joy, love, anxiety, admiration,
and frustrations of today's people.
Given an opportunity to grow and mature,
these faces will guide tomorrow's destinies.

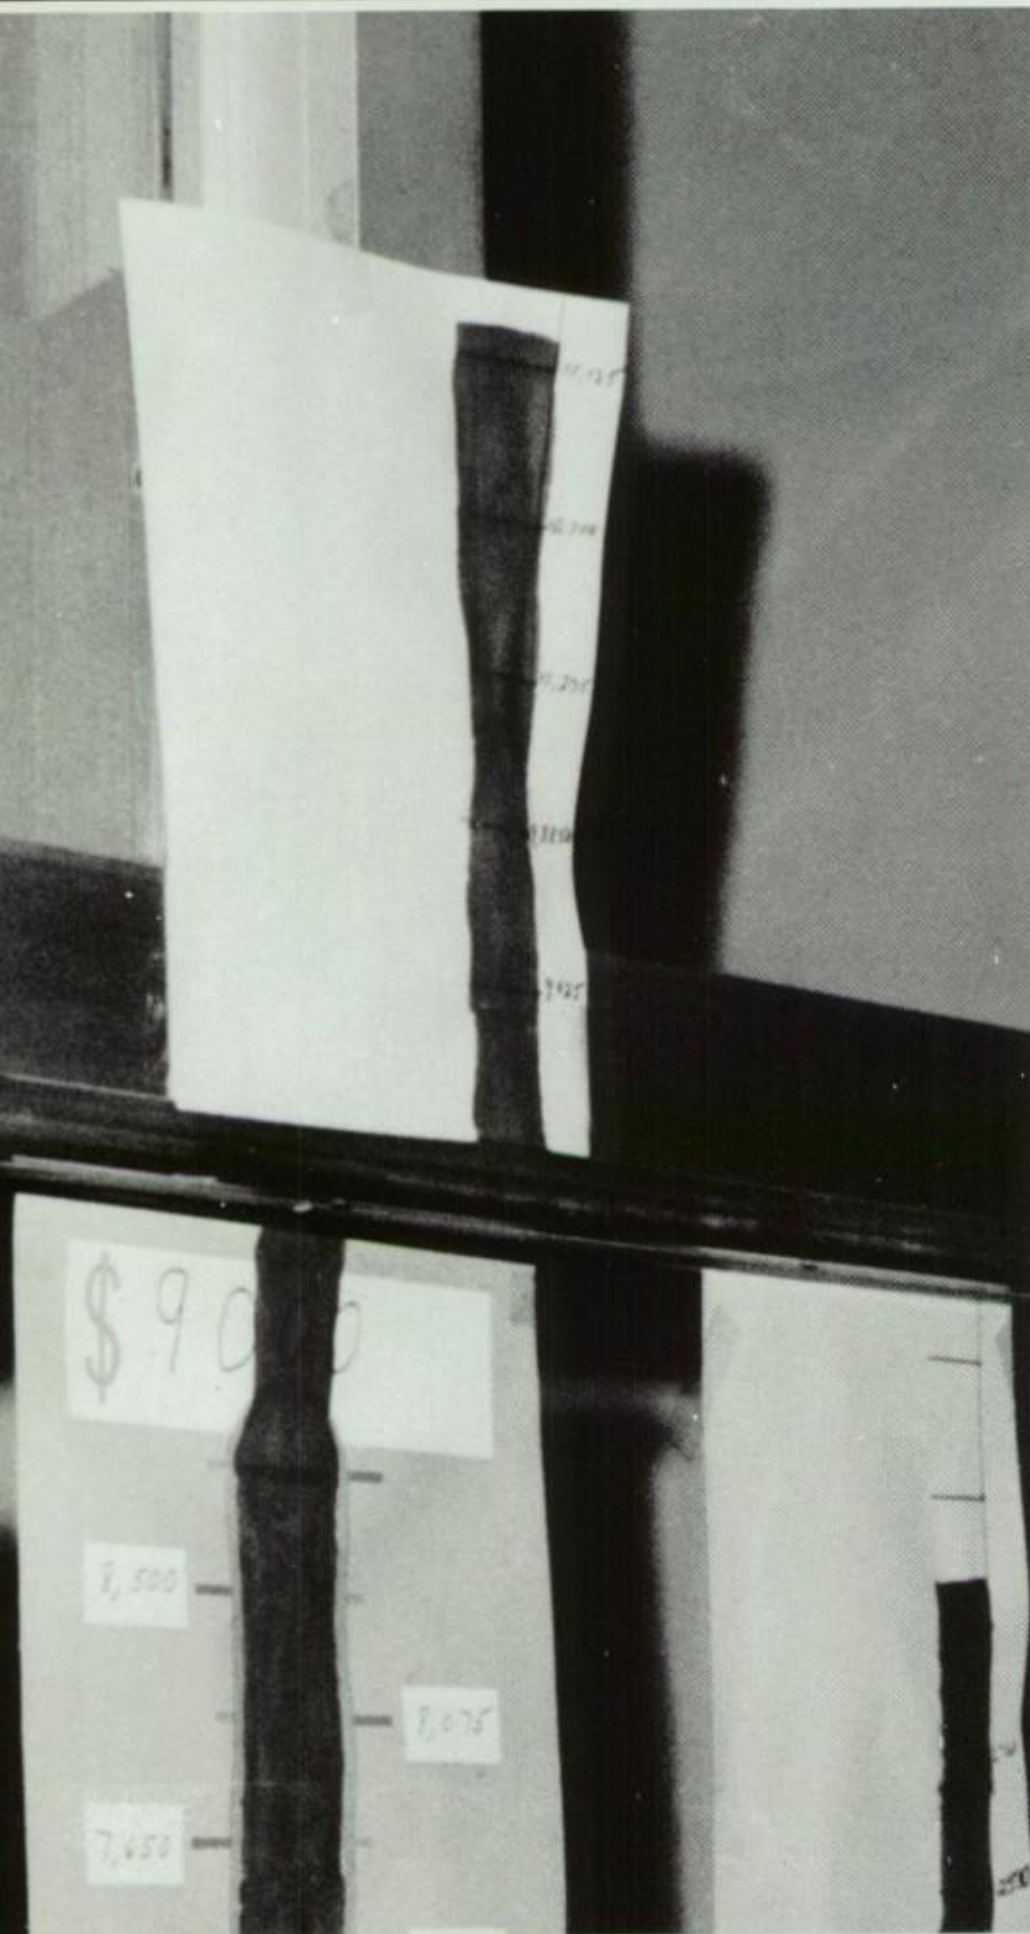

WE CERTAINLY WERE INVOLVED

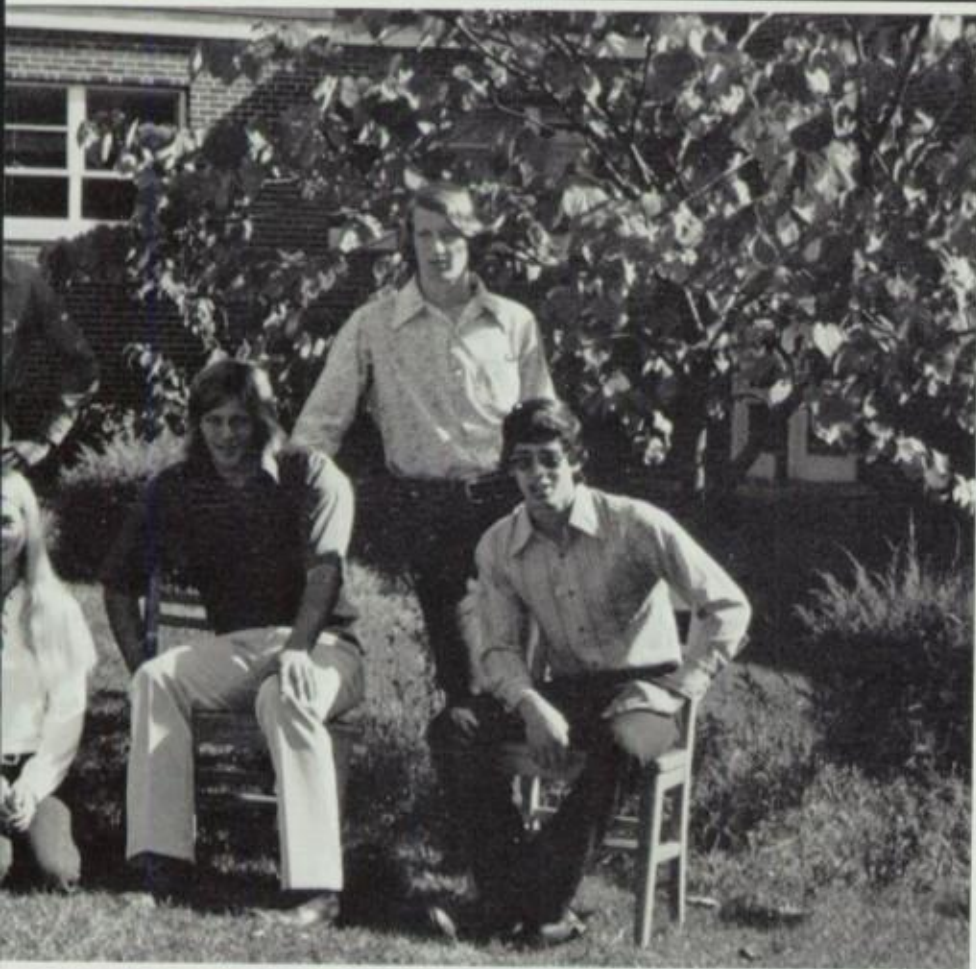

"Take part, fill in the voids," the counselor suggested.
So take part is what we did.
We formed our squads and built our teams . . .
And practiced, practiced, practiced . . .
What an impressive year we had . . .
Only to reach the end and start over again.

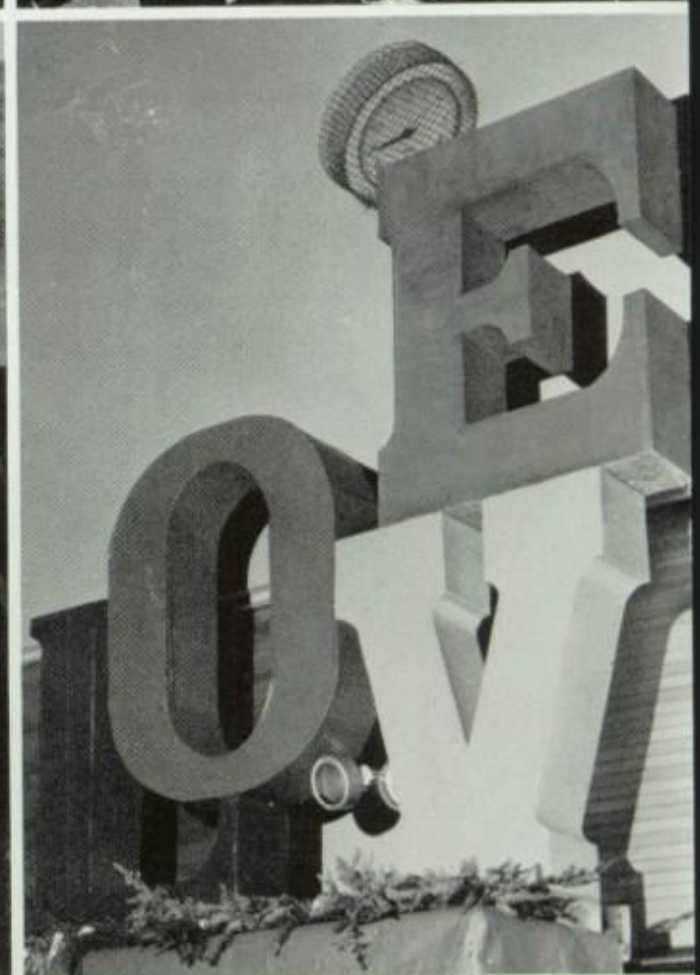

THE BEAT GOES ON . . .

The life of a high school student is a composite assortment of involvement — assemblies . . . magazine campaigns . . . community fund raisings . . . Student Council. Student Council is the getting together of homecoming, sponsoring the magazine campaign, directing assemblies, and extending congratulations to Connie Nelson, the grand prize winner of the most successful magazine campaign ever. And the beat goes on.

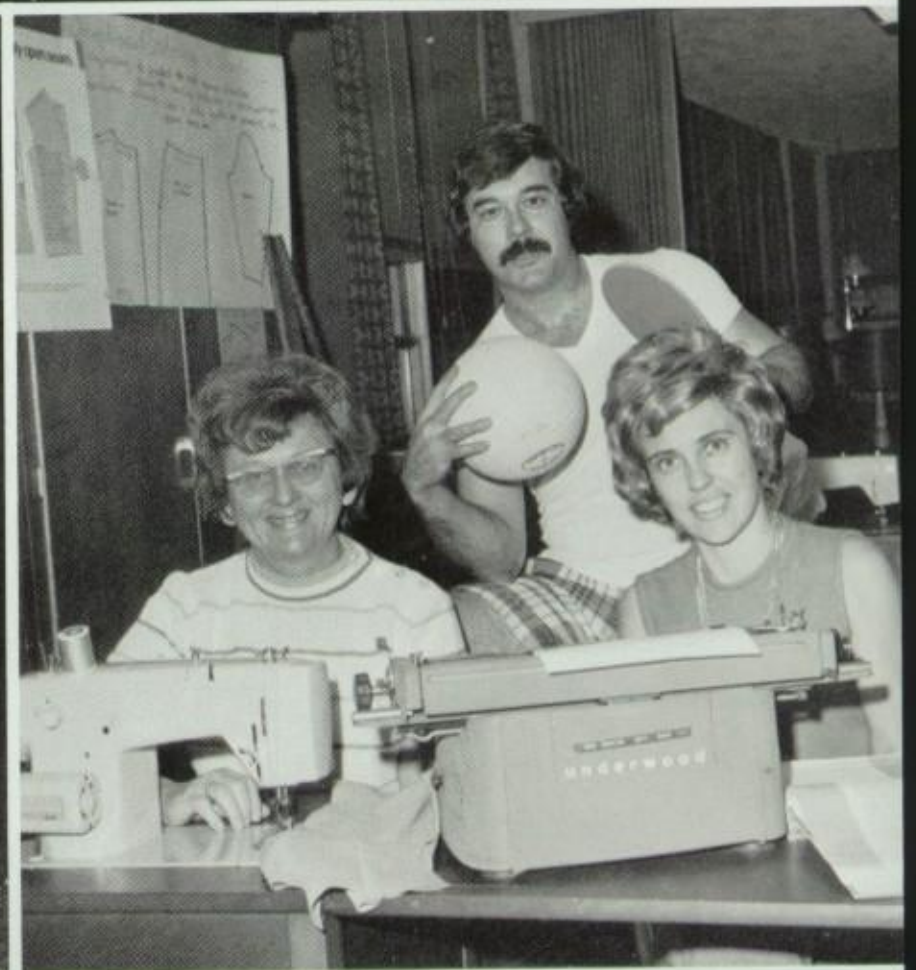

MEMORIES ARE . . .

The pay off of the bet . . .
The class of '73' winning 1st place
3rd year in a row . . .
The tough 1-0 victory over Northeastern . . .
The theme of LOVE for the Homecoming dance . . .
The selection of the Court and the crowning of Cathy Landes as queen.

WHEN THE SUN GOES DOWN

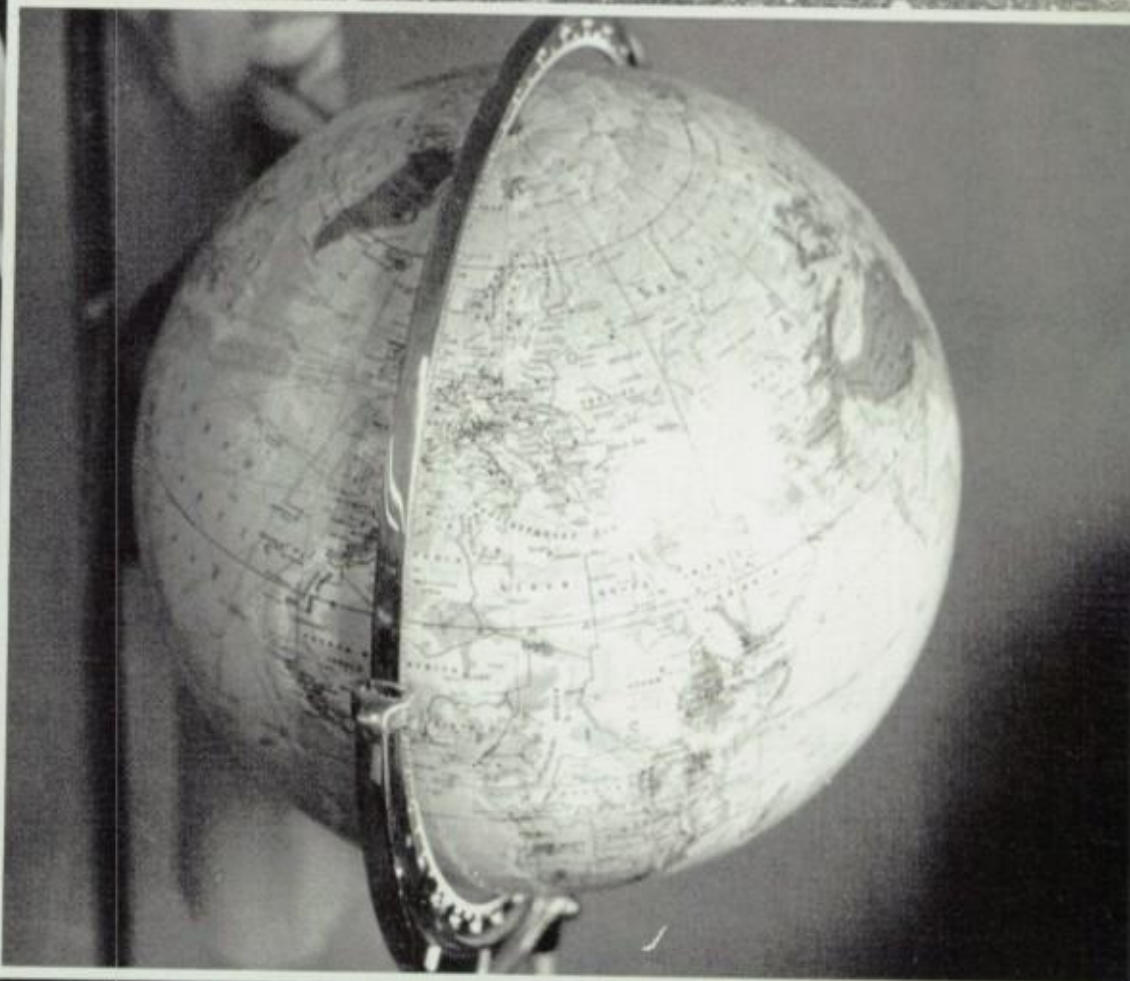

And then it was night . . . night, yet the beat goes on . . . night, and a school complex aglow with activity . . . adult education . . .
activity that includes the school year's favorite three . . . Homecoming activities . . .
Soccer games . . . and Parades.
Eventually it all ends and night becomes dark.

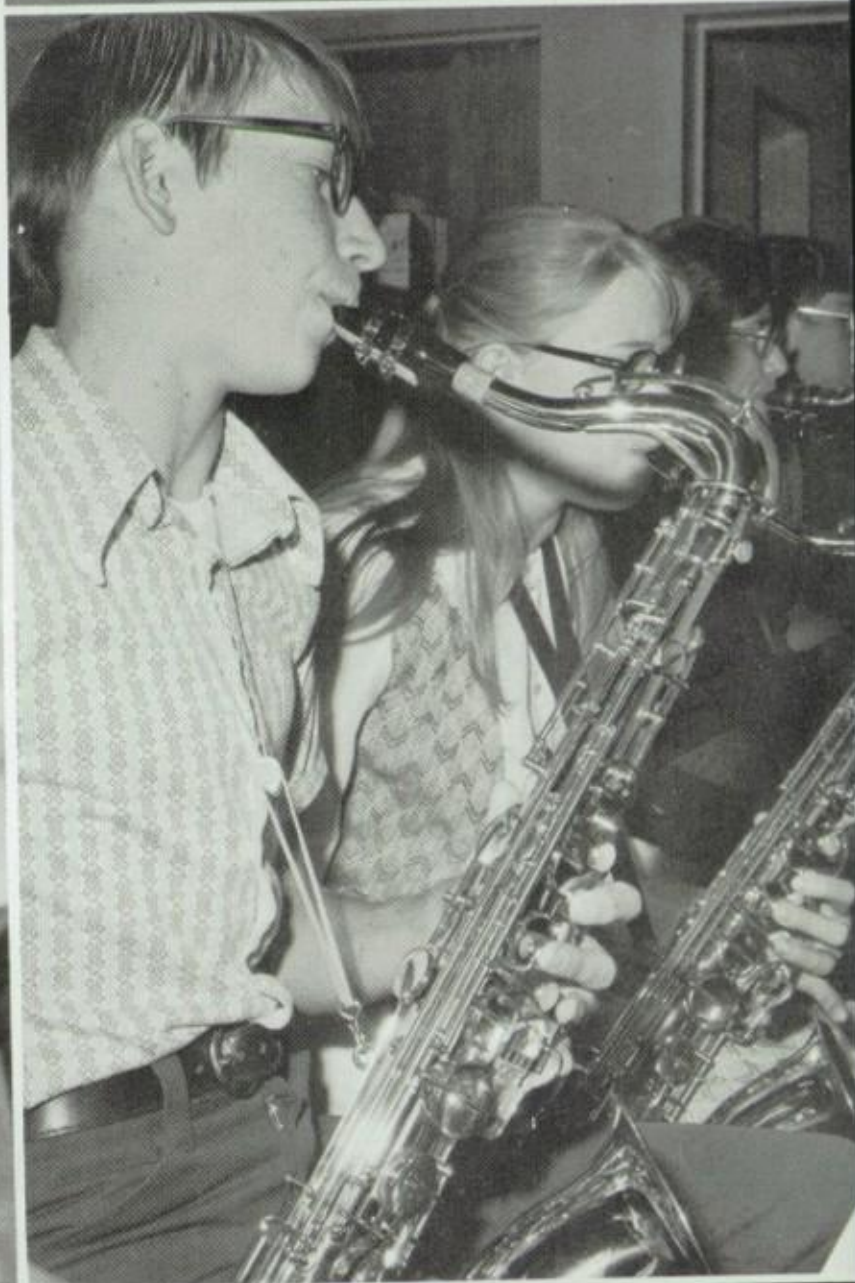

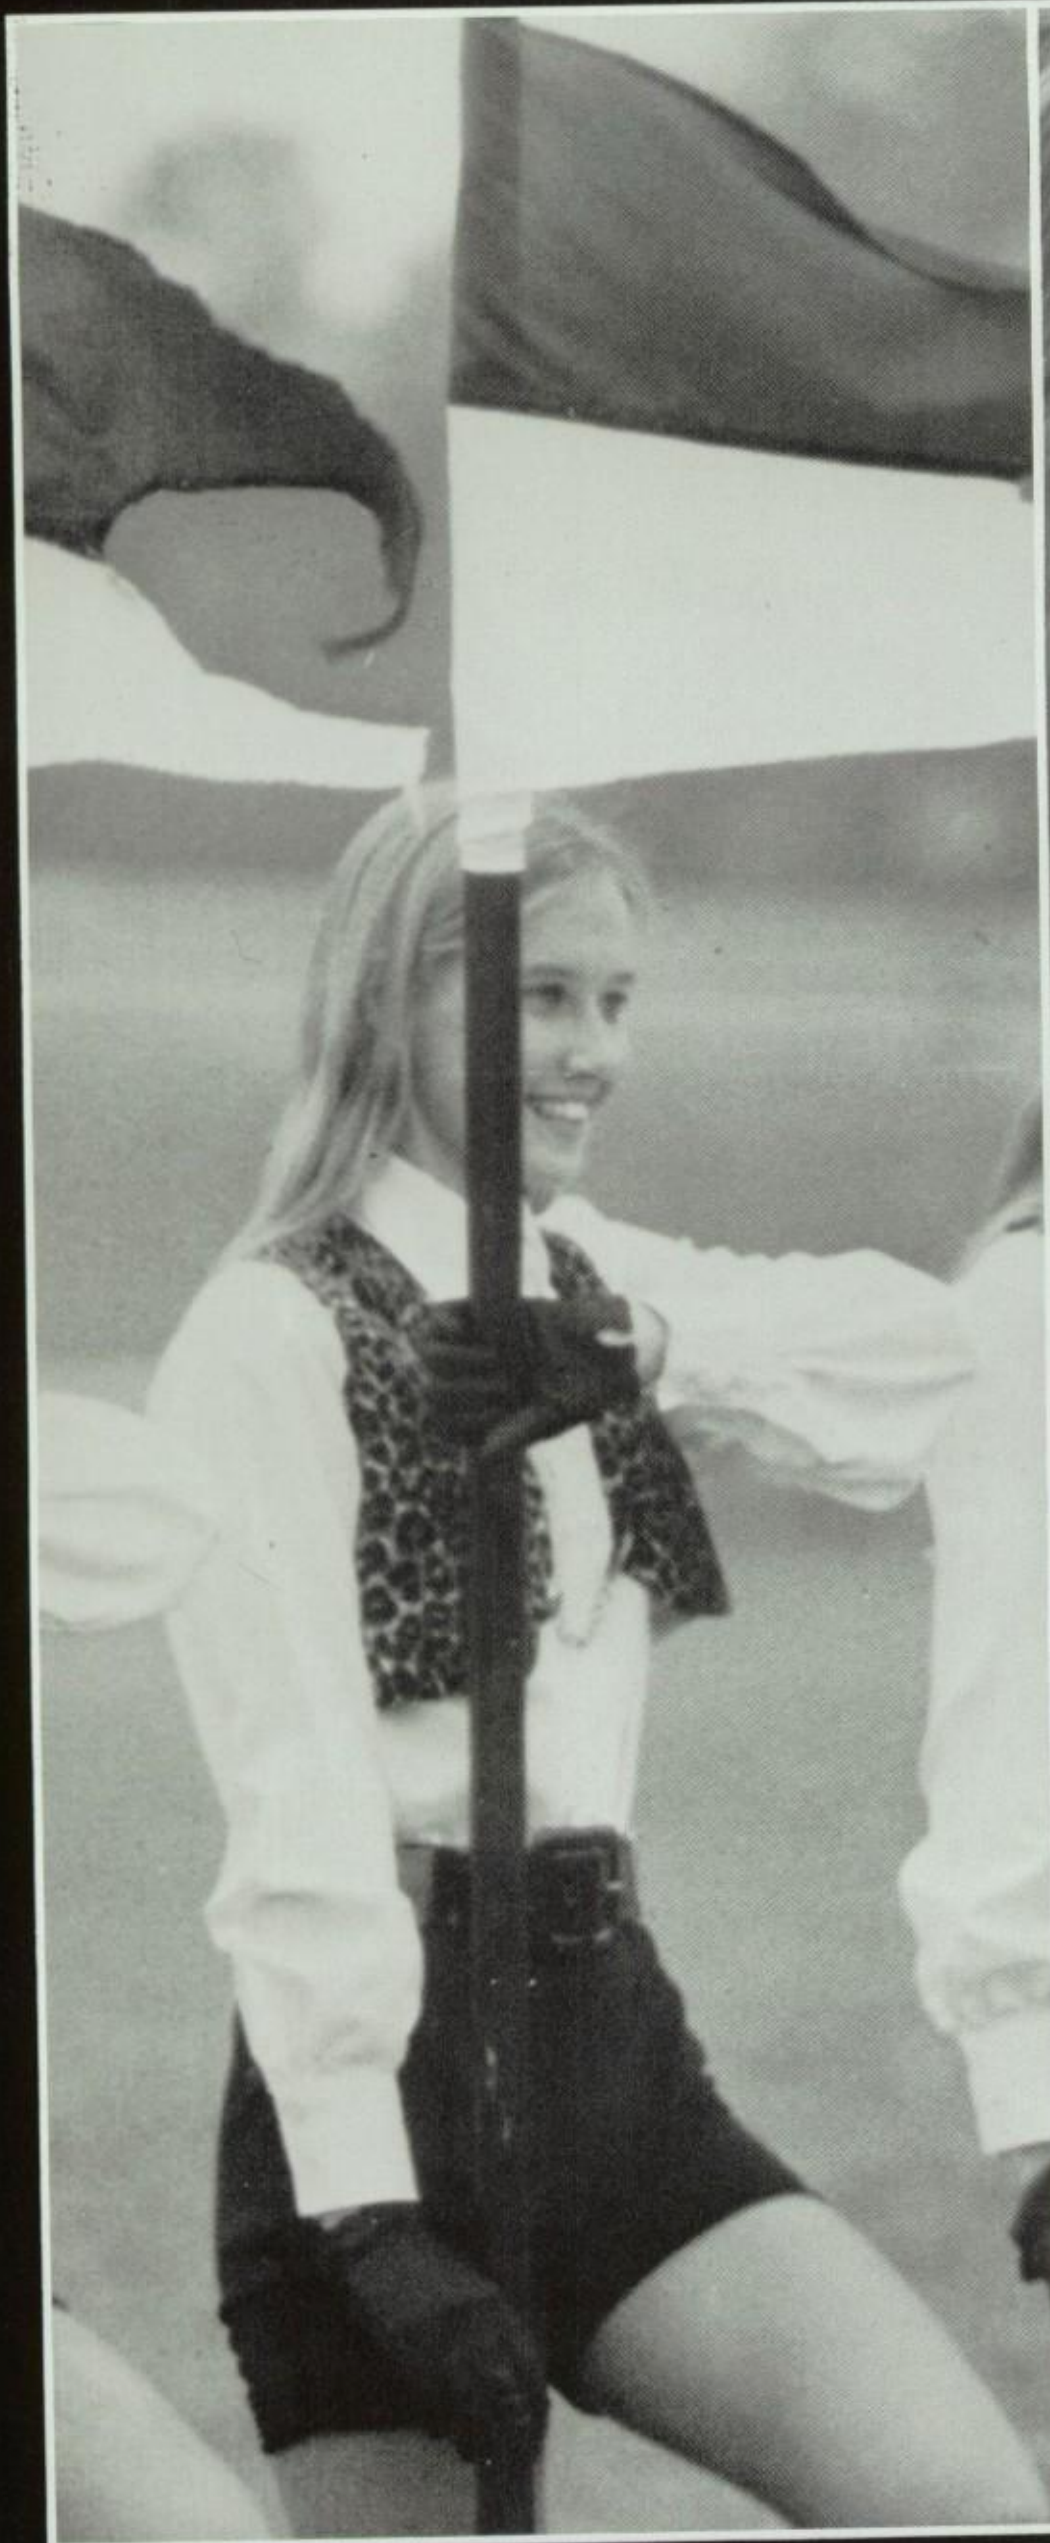

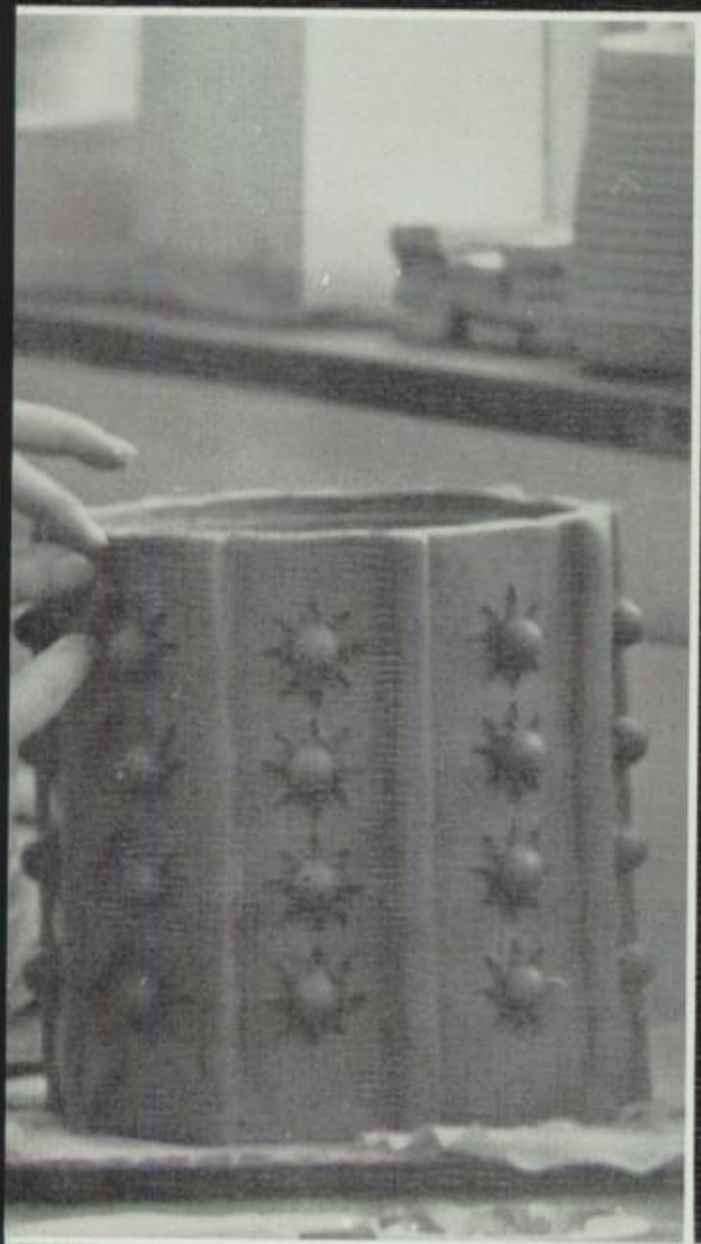

LITTLE THINGS MEAN A LOT . . .

When the people are gone and memory must fortify nostalgia, recall the empty corridors between classes . . .
the library globe no one ever used . . .
the empty chairs in 107 . . .
the first snowfall in October . . .
the clocks that stopped when the electricity went off.

FINE ARTS

Where are we going? We are following in the path of mankind, reflecting man at his best by being creative, by using imagination and insight, and by developing skills and talents. We are expressing our feelings by making an individual effort to contribute to mankind those things for which we will be remembered -- art, music, and literature. We perish, but they remain and inspire and remind those generations to come that we were here.

Expression — A Bringing Out the Meaning or Beauty of Something.

Sometimes man feels an urge to express himself, his thoughts, his feelings. He feels a fire within him that, if not released, would inevitably consume him. There are students who feel this way at Dover. Who are they? They're the students who spend much of their time wading through a conglomeration of yarn, paint, brushes, wood, and clay. Yes, they're the art students of Mr. Sneider who find pleasure in being creative by working with their hands.

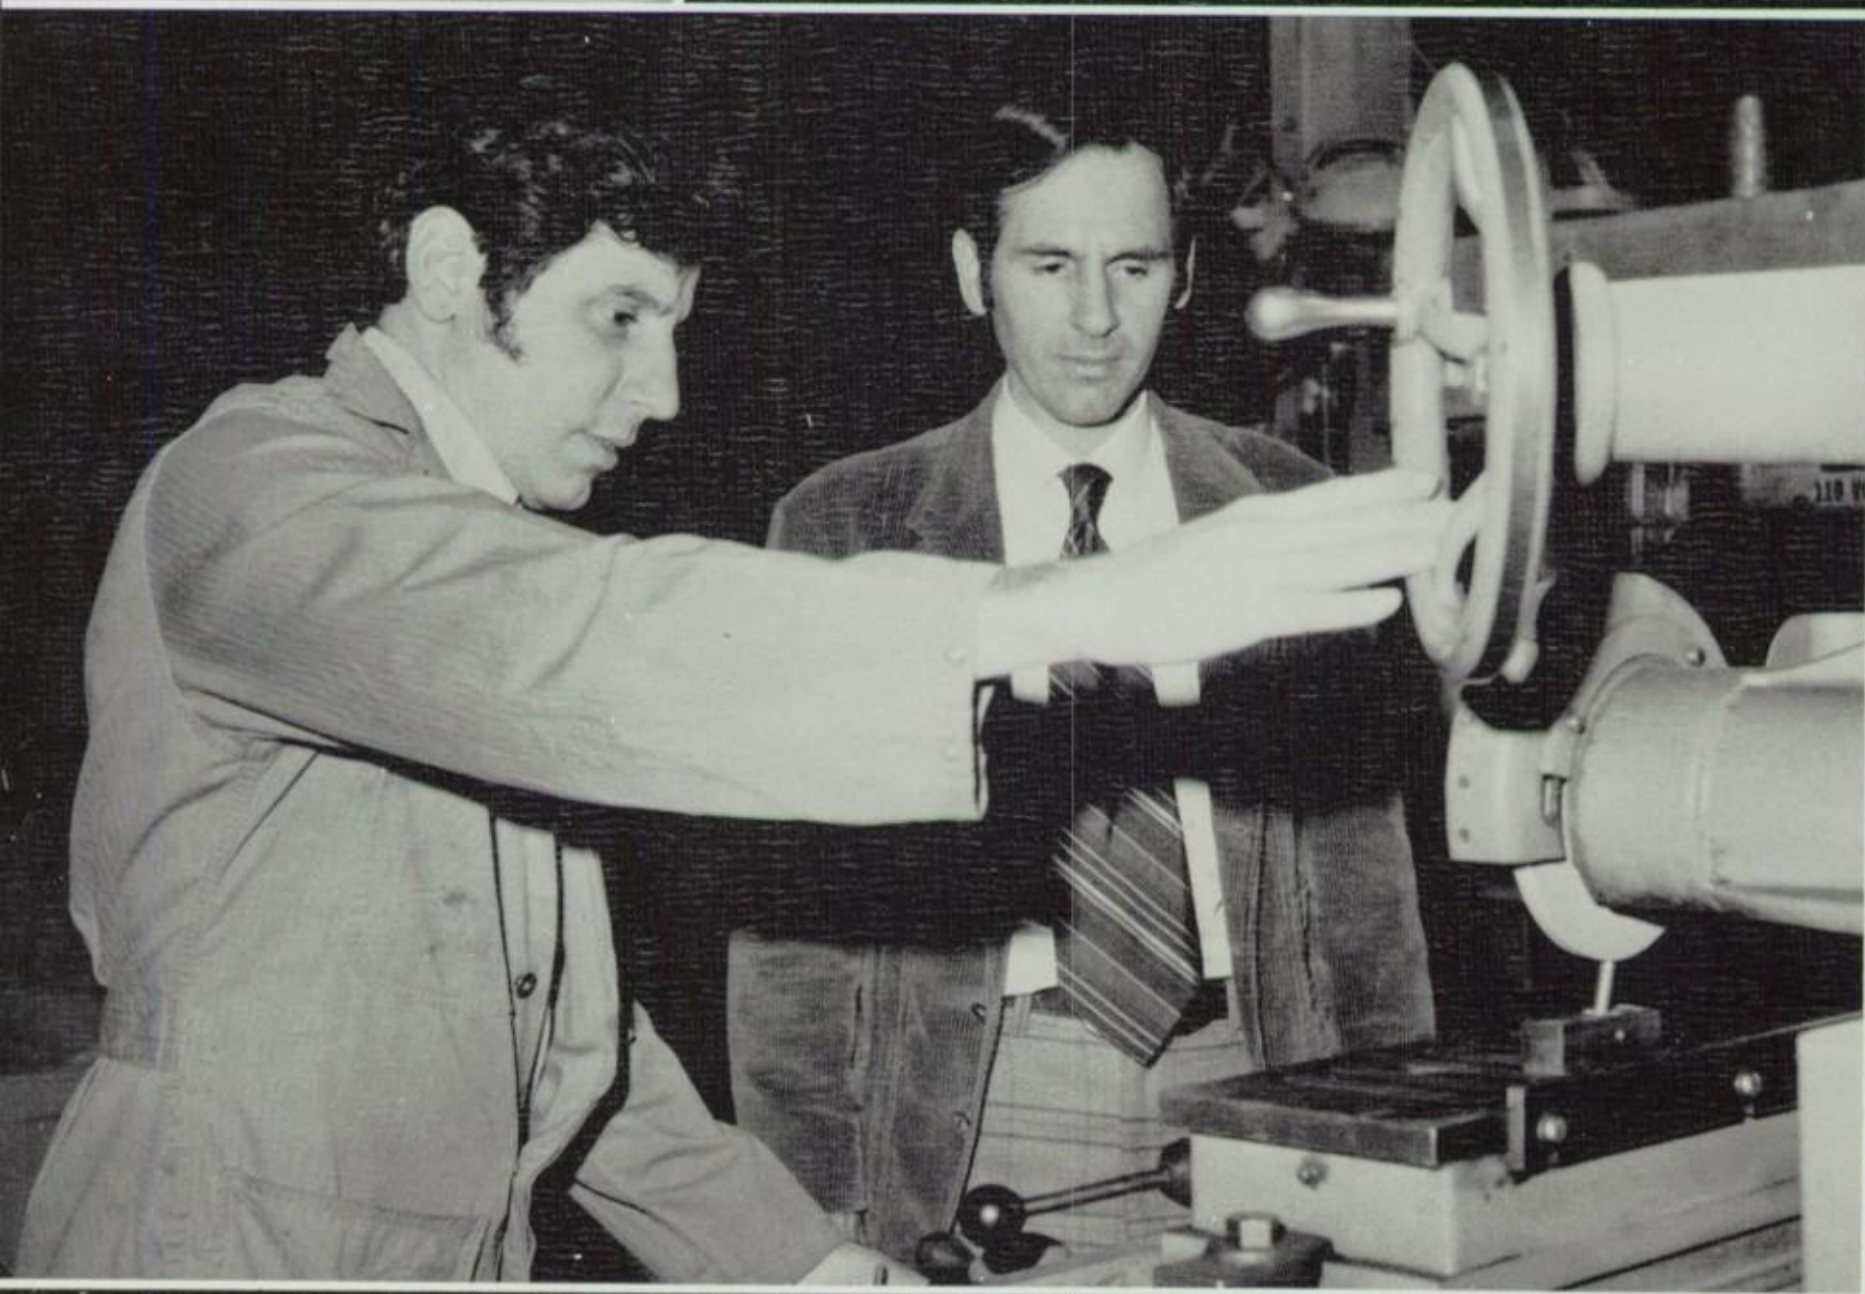

FACULTY

Where are we going? To the rest home or the asylum we sometimes think. We open the doors to our clamoring classrooms and hear our voices penetrate the tumult. Our monologues begin — some sleep, some listen quietly, and others disrupt class. Then, we see a face lit with understanding, and we smile for we know we've done a good job. This is when we are teachers in the truest sense for we have awakened and inspired those following us

"Year of Firsts" — This has been a year of firsts for the Dover School Board. It has started programs that will affect all ages in the Dover Area School District. Preliminaries have gotten underway for the expansion of the high school. A kindergarten was initiated and set up at the elementary schools. Football also got its kick-off this year when the school board passed a bill allotting money for its initiation.

CLASSES

Where are we going? We walk through unfamiliar halls, see new faces, and meet new teachers. Confusion sweeps through us as we think what direction we should take. A year has passed; we are beginning to organize our thoughts and actions. The rough edges wear down and we emerge an individual. We search our souls in order to understand why we do and say the things we do. Now, life is a little easier.

SPORTS

Where are we going? To the top we hope. We are striving to be the best in our field by devoting most of our time to practice. Our overall goal is to develop not only our bodies, but our minds and souls as well. The contest begins; we shake hands; we struggle; and we try to do our best. And, if we have the right combination of stamina, strength, and wit, we will be the victors.

SENIORS

Where are we going? We are going toward our ultimate goal — to be a senior and bring to a close our public school studies is just the beginning. The mold is cast; we are on our way with high hopes, fresh ideas, and bundles of energy. Where do we go from here? We go to college, to trade and technical schools, and to work. We've left behind years of fun and work and we move forward. We're not finished; we've only just begun.
